There needs to be a balance between Traveller deterrent, public access and emergency vehicle access. Keep under review. Janet

Zip wire: Barrie Alderson DCC, explained that Clean and Green have started a program of works repairing equipment across the county. These are being carried out in phased projects: Bowburn Park required substantial repairs; the works should be completed by the end October: Phase 1 High Priority, 'safety surface', this work has now been completed: Phase 2 Internal Repairs, this work is done by 'direct services' to various items of equipment: Phase 3 External Contractors (specialised work), this includes the cable rider.

Parkhill planning application: The second planning application from Hallam Properties for 190 units at Parkhill was given interim planning consent at the Special Committee Meeting on 14 September even though it is substantially the same as the first application apart from an amendment to the ecology section which could enhance the wildlife.

Councillors Blakey, Plews and Williams were thanked for their attendance at the special committee meeting and for fully supporting the views of our community.

A request has been made to the National Planning Casework Unit (NPCU) to call-in the application, hence the 'interim consent'. If the application is not called in then full permission will be granted and the public enquiry of 29 September would not go ahead.

However the following circumstances are giving concern about this application:

October 2014 Hallam was refused permission; appealed the decision and a public enquiry is set for 29 Sept.

June 2015 Hallam submitted a second application for the same site

14 September at a special committee meeting, DCC recommended to approve the application because none of the saved policies carry any weight; settlement boundaries are drawn too tight; due respect and consideration was not given to the Neighbourhood Plan; this site would help with the rolling programme for the next 5 years supply of housing

14 September each resident was allowed only 2 minutes each to speak to the committee

During the meeting the county solicitor raised the issue of costs incurred if the public enquiry went ahead.

The chamber was cleared for up to 10 minutes whilst the solicitor gave confidential advice; this stopped the flow of responses from the panel and on their return proceedings went straight to a majority vote in favour of the application.

29 Sep is the public enquiry and DCC have not yet submitted its evidence – it was asked for on 1 September.

At this meeting it was agreed to:

- Make a Freedom of Information request for the legal advice given to committee

Richard

And consider:

- Finding out the cost of advice to make a legal challenge if the call-in is unsuccessful, and whether the Partnership would be able to have the protection of the Aarhus convention to limit the costs.
- If suitable advice is given, getting a solicitor to send a letter before action to the council who may admit that the decision is flawed.

Land South of Bowburn, Integra61: Discussion took place about the Integra61 application that:

There is employment alongside the 150 houses, which could be seen as preferable to the Parkhill application. The developers are not house builders and they would sell the land with planning permission. The proposal is to make an application in November 2015 in which the housing will offset the cost of the infrastructure. There could be a limit on further housing because the farmer will receive a clawback if houses are built on other parts of the site.

Councillors have a meeting with Sheila Palmerley and planners to see what monies can be put into education.

At this meeting it was suggested that the application could bring major employment to the village, and members should be thinking about what Bowburn/Parkhill could gain out of S106 monies on this site. ALL

Keepmoat Community Engagement: Sarah Booth, Community Engagement and Investment Manager at Keepmoat, would like to explore ways in which she can encourage links with Keepmoat within the local community and explore the possibility of working in partnership to deliver a variety of engagement and investment projects. The trustees put forward the following ideas:

Sarah to meet with members of the Partnership at their monthly meetings; Contribution to the Fun Day on 26 September; Contribution to a Xmas Party for older people; Contribution towards the room hire for the Edith Cavell memorial event on 16 October; Contribution towards the planters for Durham Road with a plaque saying 'Sponsored by Keepmoat'. Other ideas would be welcome. ALL

Members were happy to be involved, but wanted their independence to be recognised opinions in future Keepmoat applications taken into account. Janet

Railings on Tail-Upon-End Lane: A decision needs to be taken about the height of railing. Mr Brian Kitching, DCC, will advise on this in September. Janet
